

Mary Beth Cross

"The Enchanted Highway is a celebration of moments in which I have felt a close connection to the spirit. Whether experiencing the miracle of the birth of my boys, encountering the kindness of a stranger biking along the West coast of Ireland, visiting with a Navaho woman in her hogan on the reservation in New Mexico, or bumping into an old friend, they are sacred moments, glimmers of a divine presence in my life.

We all have such moments.....

When we stop to appreciate the love that holds us all together, our differences melt away and all that remains is harmony and beauty."
